Introduction

Thanks for thinking about a career with the Co-op.

Back in 1844 a group of businessmen in Rochdale created an idea that changed the world. They believed that when people work together, they’re stronger. And that principles are just as important as profits. They were pioneers. And they left us a legacy that’s never been more important or relevant than it is today. That’s why we’re going back to being Co-op. We want to change the world all over again, and we hope you’d like to join us on our journey.

We’ve changed a lot over the years. And our business is continuing to grow and transform, to meet the needs of our customer members, colleagues and the many local communities we’re at the heart of. From Food, Funeralcare and Insurance, to Digital, Electrical, Estates, Legal and Logistics, our range of products and services is vast - and, it’s only matched by the huge breadth of career opportunity available here for you.

A truly unique and award-winning organisation, what really sets us apart is the way that we behave. We’ve always had a purpose beyond profit. From the very beginning, we’ve been a commercial organisation first, with an ethical foundation and social responsibilities at our very heart. This unwavering spirit is what makes us special. And, today, we’re more committed than ever to realising our ethical, social and commercial ambitions. Join us and achieve your ambitions too.

We’re looking forward to receiving your application.

Food store application only

Only complete this section if you’re applying for a Team Leader or Customer Team Member position in one of our food stores.

The structure of the team is the same in all stores. Team Managers report to the Store Manager and Team Leaders support the Team Managers.

Team Leaders manage part of the store and also carry out duty manager responsibilities. We then have Customer Team Members, who make sure all our customers have an amazing shopping experience.

Once you’ve completed this form, please hand it into the store.

1. What’s the largest size of team you’ve managed during your previous 10 years’ work experience? (select one)

   A  0 people
   B  1-5 people
   C  6-10 people
   D  11+ people

2. Which one of the following most closely describes the environment in which you’ve gained your previous customer service experience?

   A  Food retail
   B  Other retail
   C  Hospitality – bar / restaurant / hotel / catering
   D  None of the above / no experience

3. Which if any of the following qualifications do you hold? (Please select ALL that apply)

   A  First aid
   B  Food hygiene
   C  National Certificate for Personal Licence Holder/Scottish Certificate for Personal Licence Holder
   D  National Vocational Qualification Retail/Scottish Vocational Qualification Retail
The questions below are based on some scenarios you might come across on a typical working day in one of our stores. Under each question you’ll find four possible answers. Read through them and choose the one you think is the MOST appropriate and the one you think is the LEAST appropriate in each situation.

Indicate your choices by writing M for most and L for least in the boxes provided, leaving the other two boxes blank.

1. You’ve just finished your shift for the day and are about to leave the store. It’s been a long tiring day serving customers and you’re looking forward to going home. On your way out a customer approaches you and asks if you’ve any sugar as they can’t see any on the shelves.
   - A Point the customer in the direction of one of your colleagues
   - B Tell the customer you’ve finished your shift and unfortunately can’t help
   - C Explain that you’ll go and look in the stock room for sugar
   - D Ask one of your colleagues to go and look in the stock room for sugar and tell the customer

2. Your manager tells you that another local store is short staffed due to holidays and sickness and, as a result, you’ll need to work in this store for the next two weeks. How do you feel about this?
   - A Slightly hesitant as this is a very busy store
   - B Reluctant but understand the need to support colleagues in other stores
   - C Pleased that your manager has recommended you and willing to help colleagues in other stores
   - D Pleased that your manager has recommended you but slightly nervous about working in an unfamiliar store

3. Having checked a customer’s eggs whilst serving on the checkout, you notice that some of the eggs in the box are cracked. You call for assistance but there’s no immediate response and the customer appears to be in a hurry. Do you…?
   - A Tell the customer that you’ll go and get a replacement box of eggs for them
   - B Offer the customer the eggs at a reduced price
   - C Apologise to the customer and wait for help to come
   - D Ask the customer to go and get a replacement box of eggs

4. After several recent large deliveries of stock, the warehouse has become full and disorganised. Your manager has asked you to sort out the warehouse by the end of the week and check that all items are still within their sell-by date. However, you’re extremely concerned about whether you’ll be able to complete this on time as it’s a very large task. What do you do?
   - A Speak to your manager and tell them it will take you longer than a week to complete this task
   - B Speak to your manager and request a colleague to support you with the task
   - C Ask a colleague to assist you with the task
   - D Voice your concerns to your colleagues and then get on with the task

5. Whilst filling the salad section of the produce display you notice the contents of the bags of salad have gone brown and soggy. Having checked the temperature of the fridge you note the temperature is above the legal requirement. You tell your manager about this. However the next day you notice the same problem. What action do you take?
   - A Check with your manager that the engineers have repaired the fault
   - B Remove the affected stock, confident that your manager will be dealing with the fault
   - C Remove the affected stock and inform your manager about it
   - D Remove the affected stock and ask your manager if there is anything else you can do to help resolve this issue

6. A colleague has pointed out that signage for an offer that’s no longer available is still on display. You realise this is your error, as you were the last team member to change the signage. What do you do next?
   - A Stop what you’re doing immediately and check the shop floor for any further errors
   - B Ask your colleague to take a quick look
   - C Remain confident that this would be the only error as you’re very thorough when completing this task
   - D Immediately perform a full check on the shop floor and ask your colleague to double check behind you
7. You’ve been asked to go to the newspaper and magazine section to help a customer who’s slipped on a flyer that has fallen out of a magazine. You notice several of these flyers scattered across the floor. After helping the customer and filling in the accident book, what action do you take to prevent this happening again?

A. Speak to your colleague who looks after the newspaper and magazine section
B. Speak to your manager highlighting the problem and suggesting that something should be done about the issue
C. Raise the issue at the next store team meeting, suggesting that everyone helps to keep the floor clear of flyers on a regular basis
D. Make it part of your daily routine to check the floor and remove the flyers yourself

8. Your manager has just told you the computer has gone down and the stock information for the frozen section of the store has become corrupted. The frozen food order needs to be processed in two hours but will be inaccurate unless the entire frozen section is re-counted and all the stock figures corrected in time. This count could take you up to two hours to complete. How will you make sure you achieve this?

A. Ask your manager if you can be excused from other duties whilst you complete this task
B. Get on with the task, knowing that there’ll be interruptions, but hope to get most of it done in time
C. Ask for some support from a colleague so they can prepare the stock for counting ahead of you and carry out some of your other duties
D. Start the counting, confident that you can finish the stock count on time, whilst supporting with other duties if required

9. You notice that customers are starting to comment on the lack of variety of sandwiches available at lunch time. Do you...

A. Speak to the person responsible for ordering sandwiches to make them aware of the customers’ comments
B. Highlight the comments to your manager
C. Approach the customers to find out what additional varieties they’d would like to see, then speak to the person who places the orders
D. Leave a note for your colleague by the computer for when they place the next order

10. A customer approaches you to say that he’s received a leaflet advertising a special offer on a particular brand of coffee, but can’t see any sign of the offer in the store. How do you respond?

A. Apologise and say that unfortunately you don’t have that offer on in this store
B. Apologise to the customer, call the nearest store to ask if they have the offer on and tell the customer
C. Apologise and suggest that the customer visits the store down the road to see if they have the offer on
D. Apologise and suggest that the customer goes to look if there are any alternative products on offer

11. Your manager has recently pinned a report on the staff noticeboard showing the percentages of customers using Co-op Membership Cards in our stores. You’ve noticed that your store is sitting at the bottom of the league table for your area. What do you do?

A. Nothing immediately as there’s a team meeting early next week where you’re confident it will be on the agenda
B. Speak to your colleagues indicating how this doesn’t look good for the store and that something needs to be done
C. Make sure you personally ask each customer if they have a Membership Card and actively promote the benefits to customers
D. Encourage your colleagues to join you in asking all customers for Membership Cards and actively promote the benefits of Membership to customers

12. During a team meeting your manager asks for a volunteer to oversee a project to improve customer service within the store. The volunteer will be provided with the latest Customer Satisfaction Report to work from. How do you feel about this?

A. Keen to get involved but will wait to see if any of your colleagues volunteer first
B. Keen to have the opportunity to improve customer service as you already have some immediate ideas
C. Interested but feel you can’t take this on as you’re worried about how it might impact on your daily routine
D. Interested in getting involved in some way and will offer the volunteer your support
13. You've set aside the following day to complete some required changes to the cigarette kiosk. Your manager tells you that the next day a new team member will be starting and asks you, as the most experienced member of the team, to spend the day training them on the tills. Do you...?
A. Get the new starter to help you with the kiosk changes and carry out the training the day after
B. Spend the majority of the day fully training the new starter and work on the kiosk changes later in the day
C. Train the new starter quickly on the basics, then get on with the kiosk changes and complete the training the following day
D. Ask your manager if they can find someone else to train the new starter as you need to get the kiosk changes done

14. You've recently noticed a colleague being abrupt and off-hand with you. You've always got on well with this colleague before and don't understand why they're acting this way towards you. How do you deal with it?
A. Speak to your manager about your colleague’s attitude towards you and ask them to talk to your colleague
B. Act in a friendly and helpful manner towards your colleague
C. Have a chat with your colleague to find out if there is a problem that you could help with
D. Keep busy with your work and try not to let it bother you

15. You're chatting to a colleague who tells you that when they last took annual leave their department suffered as there was nobody else fully trained to provide cover. They're due to go on holiday in two weeks time and are worried that they'll return to a large workload again. How do you respond?
A. Sympathise with your colleague and suggest they speak to the manager
B. Sympathise with your colleague and go and speak to your manager about the problem
C. Inform your colleague that you'd be very happy to support their department during this time
D. Speak to your manager and suggest that you spend time working alongside your colleague over the next two weeks so you can help out

16. A friend of yours has just started working for another one of our stores nearby and you've been discussing the differences between the two stores. It becomes apparent to you that this other store has recently made some improvements to their processes and procedures. What do you do?
A. Raise this with your manager and suggest they visit the local store
B. Speak to your colleagues and manager about this and suggest you work closely with the other store to find out how you can share ideas
C. Suggest to your friend that their manager talks to your manager
D. Mention it to a couple of your colleagues during a tea break

The remaining questions are to be answered by applicants for Team Leader roles only. If you're applying for a Customer Team Member vacancy you don't need to answer these questions.

17. Your Store Manager has released the latest Mystery Shopper report, which highlights several issues with customer service requiring immediate attention. The team have been working hard to deliver improvements but there appears to have been no significant change since the last report. After reading the report fully, what action do you take with the team?
A. Hold a meeting with your team to communicate and discuss the issues, gather suggestions for improvement and put together an action plan
B. Mention it at the next team meeting and tell them you expect to see improvements
C. Speak to each team member to get a greater understanding of the issue
D. Create an action plan for improvement and present it to your team at the next team meeting

18. You've recently noticed that one of your Customer Team Members has been arriving 15 minutes late for their shift and turning up looking untidy, with a dirty uniform. What action do you take?
A. Have a quiet word with the Customer Team Member before they start their next shift to try to resolve the issue
B. Monitor the situation over the next few weeks and keep a record of any further instances
C. Let the Customer Team Member know that you're aware of the situation and try to work out whether there are any underlying problems and if there's anything you can do to help
D. Arrange a formal meeting with them, recording the interview discussion with dates and times
19. A member of your team has approached you and asked if they can be moved from the busy Saturday night shift. On further investigation you discover that they’ve been making errors on paypoint and lottery transactions due to the high volumes of customers visiting the store. The Customer Team Member has told you they no longer feel confident working on the kiosk. What do you do?

A. Reassure the Customer Team Member, offer some advice and tell them that we all make mistakes and they’ll get used to it in time
B. Reassure the Customer Team Member and offer some further training on the paypoint and lottery terminals
C. Ask another colleague to buddy the Customer Team Member to provide support, assistance and further training until their confidence has returned
D. Move them off the shift in case customers start to comment about the errors and the cash losses exceed budget

20. Your store’s been showing a very healthy sales growth and the entire store team are very proud of this achievement. However a competitor has just opened up across the road from you and in the week since they opened the store, sales have been impacted. Store budgets have been changed to reflect the sales impact. What do you do?

A. Hold a team meeting to communicate the revised budgets and outline the steps that the team need to take to improve sales
B. Mention in your next one-to-one meeting with each Customer Team Member that they need to be alert to opportunities to increase sales
C. Pin the new budgets, along with some suggestions to improve sales, on the noticeboard for all the store team to see
D. Monitor the situation for a while before communicating anything to the team to see if sales begin to pick up
Diversity monitoring

We recognise that our success depends upon having a workforce with a diverse range of skills, backgrounds and experience in order to spark ideas, promote debate and encourage innovation and creativity.

The information we collect is stored confidentially and securely. Data legislation protects you and your data. All personal information can only be accessed by authorised HR colleagues. Once collected, this information can show us who’s joining and leaving the Group, we can see which areas are doing well in promotions and transfers, whether everyone is treated fairly and whether everyone is given equal access to training and development opportunities.

Completing this information will help us to deliver against our diversity commitments and contribute to an inclusive working environment for all colleagues. We respect an individual’s right not to disclose this information. For this reason, a ‘prefer not to say’ option is included.

For each question put a cross in only one box as shown e.g. x

If you make a mistake, scribble out the the wrong box and put a cross in the correct answer box 🆑 🆑

Your personal details (Please complete all boxes)

1. Name

2. Date of birth D D M M Y

The Co-op believes that people should be judged, not by their age, but according to their skills and abilities at work. By monitoring our colleagues age we can make sure that opportunities for development and promotion are open to everyone.

3. National Insurance number

4. Employee number
If you’ve been issued with an employee number please enter it here:

5. Disability

Disabled colleagues are entitled to reasonable adjustments under the law to enable them access to work. The Co-op strives to increase disabled people’s access to work. We’re part of the Government’s “Two tick” scheme which guarantees interviews for suitably qualified disabled applicants. We need to know whether we’re delivering on these commitments.

Do you consider yourself to have a disability?  Yes  No  Prefer not to say

6. Ethnicity

By monitoring ethnicity, we can compare our business against the data collected in previous year’s National Census. This can show whether we attract people to work for us from all communities, and whether as an employer, we reflect the communities we serve. We can also show whether all groups are treated fairly. What is your ethnicity?

a) White

□ British  □ Irish  □ Any other White background

b) Mixed

□ White and Black Caribbean  □ White and Black African  □ Any other mixed background

c) Asian or Asian British

□ Indian  □ Pakistani  □ Bangladeshi  □ Any other Asian background

d) Black or Black British

□ Caribbean  □ African  □ Any other Black background

e) Chinese or other ethnic group

□ Chinese  □ Any other

f) Prefer not to say

7. Gender

By monitoring the gender of our staff, we can see whether some of our jobs are more attractive to men or women, and whether both sexes stay with us. Monitoring by sex also helps us to develop new policies and ways of working. Monitoring gender ensures that both men and women are treated fairly in our business. We know that men and women’s career patterns can be different; by monitoring gender we make sure that we can respond to colleague’s needs. Are you:

□ Male  □ Female

8. Religion or belief

Telling us about your religion or belief allows us to understand and plan to meet the particular needs of staff. It helps us to think about how we can accommodate requests to meet people’s religious needs. Knowing the religion of our staff helps us create an environment where all beliefs are respected. What is your religion or belief?

□ None  □ Buddhist  □ Christian

□ Hindu  □ Jewish  □ Muslim

□ Sikh  □ Other  □ Prefer not to say

9. Sexual orientation

Monitoring whether people are gay/lesbian, bisexual or heterosexual acknowledges that we value all staff and the contribution they bring to our business. An open and inclusive culture creates an environment where all colleagues can feel comfortable disclosing their sexuality. We know that people perform better when they can be themselves. How would you describe your sexual orientation?

□ Heterosexual/straight  □ Gay man  □ Lesbian/gay woman

□ Bisexual  □ Prefer not to say

Please fold in half and staple/sellotape together so the information is not visible

For part-time roles, what’s the minimum and maximum number of hours you’re willing to work per week?

Minimum | Maximum

Please note that if you accept an offer of employment with us, you’ll be scheduled and required to work within any of your stated availability subject to any legal restrictions and/or agreed maximum working hours. In certain circumstances you might be required to change your scheduled hours of work at short notice.

Any offer of employment will be on the basis of a set minimum number of hours a week, which will be confirmed in your Statement of Main Terms and Conditions of Employment as your ‘normal hours of work’. You’ll not be scheduled for less than this, but you may might required to work more, within your stated availability.

Once you’ve accepted an offer of employment, if you need to reduce your availability, or temporarily change it, for any reason, you must request this in writing to your Manager. They’ll consider your request and do their best to accommodate it based on operational needs, It can’t be guaranteed that your request will be accepted though.
